History of North Newry Church's First 50 Years

by Miss Carrie Wright

(Read by John W. Ames, student minister, at the fifteenth anniversary observance on August 29.)

It was with some hesitancy that the writing of this history was attempted due to the limited amount of authentic information available, but with the records obtained and the much appreciated reminiscences of the very few people now living who were active in the church work half a century ago, these facts are submitted with the hope that they will prove interesting and inspiring to all, both young and old, who share with pride the fifteenth anniversary of the Newry Community Church.

Perhaps it is well to recall the church situation in Newry previous to the erection of this building. There was a church building at Newry Corner where services were held. The same minister held services in the Branch School located a few rods from this spot. The work was under the supervision of the Methodist Conference and the resident pastor lived in the parsonage at Newry Corner. Changes came, as they inevitably do in any community, until the conditions made it necessary to discontinue having the services of a resident pastor.

For a few years there was a student pastor who held services during the summer both at Newry Corner and at North Newry.

Finally, the old church building was abandoned and later torn down. The parsonage, now the home of Herbert Morton Jr., was sold in 1946.

Let us visualize, as best we may, the Branch schoolhouse as a place of worship. During the service, passers-by might observe a few horses hitched to near-by trees, some standing in the hills of the wagon or sleigh while the more frisky ones were detached from the vehicles to avoid accidents. In the coldest weather, the horses were taken to the barns of nearby farmers and housed during the service.

As one entered the schoolroom he saw hand-made benches and desks of different sizes since there were pupils from five year olds to young men and women attending school. The teacher's desk served as a pulpit. The organ which was kept in a closet made to protect it during the school week was at one side of the room. The organist and the singers, usually two or three in number, occupied the front seats nearest the organ. The so-called choir stood facing the organ while singing. The music was much better during the summer when old friends were back for summer visits. The room was heated by a box stove around which in the winter as many as possible would stand until the service began.

At an evening service or entertainment the room was lighted by kerosene lamps, known as bracket lamps. A lamp was placed on the shelf of the organ and on the desk pulpit.

Suffice it to say that in this environment the spiritual life of men, women and children was nurtured as they sensed the presence of God and listened to his teachings. There are men and women today who recall with gratitude the lessons taught in the Sabbath school.

In the early nineteenth century some of the leading citizens of town felt that the time had come when North Newry should have and could have a church building.

The Week in Oxford County

The new lower station of the Rumford Falls Power Co., recently completed, is undergoing final tests prior to full operation. Chief Engineer Philip W. Thomas expects the plant to function completely by October 1.

East Sumner was completely shut off from all sides during Hurricane Edna. Roads were washed out or flooded. Telephone service was out.

John Marshall, State Trooper, West Paris, received leg fractures, cuts and bruises when his car went off the road near the Dunstan barracks last Friday.

The ferry boat at Rumford Point was damaged badly by the high water Saturday. It is being repaired and is expected to be in operation sometime this week.

COMMENTS FROM THE OFFICE OF THE TOWN MANAGER

According to the votes cast in Monday's election Bethel turned out well and gave a good demonstration of the two party system at work.

The Bethel tellers gave a good account of themselves in getting the count in early compared to some of the other near-by towns of about the same size.

We are having a little trouble with the rats around the dump but believe the rats will also have a little trouble there as we have used an application of "Duocido" a poison recommended by the wild life people.

Starting on top of Paradise Hill where work left off last year, we are in hopes to widen and straighten about seven-tenths of a mile towards Broad Street; excavation work is finished and part of the gravel already hauled.

CHURCH COUNCIL TO HOLD SCHOOL HERE

The Oxford County School of Religious Education, sponsored by the Oxford County Council of Churches, will be held at the West Parish Congregational Church on Sept. 28, Oct. 5 and 12, from 7:30 to 9:30 p. m.

The sessions include two fifty minute classes and a twenty minute devotional period conducted by the Rev J Nesbitt Lello, Chaplain of the school.

The list of courses offered includes some of particular interest in the field of religious education, and others in general churchmanship. The offered courses and the faculty are as follows:

Teaching Kindergarten Children, Rev Gladys D York, North Yarmouth Congregational Church.

Teaching Youth, Rev Robert Carter, Bethel Methodist Church.

Young Adult Work in the Church, Rev Daniel Novotny, Gorham, N. H. Congregational Church.

Improving the Sunday School, Mrs Eunice Buck, Naples.

Translating the Bible into English (The Growth of the English Bible), Rev Charles Pendleton, West Parish Congregational Church.

The Background of Hymns, Wilbur Bull, D. D., Waterville.

Miss Marie Mills, a member of the sophomore class at Bates College, will return there Friday to assume her duties as proctor of her dormitory during the Freshman Week activities.

The idea took root and spread and it is reported that a meeting was called at one of the homes to discuss possibilities and soon after the wheels had been set in motion.

About this time, in 1903, a student minister, Edville Roys, was preaching both at Newry Corner and at North Newry. Mr Roys had no Ford, but went on foot making his calls in the homes up and down the Valley.

Mr Howard Thurston tells of his starting to walk to Newry Corner for afternoon service after the previous morning service at North Newry. He called at the Thurston home about a mile on his way. Whereupon, Mr Thurston offered his driving horse to make the trip. Mr Roys gladly accepted the offer.

Mr Roys was a young man of spiritual insight and he sensed the need of a church building. His personal contacts stimulated the building project. In fact, he frequently visited at one of the lumber mills sometimes dining with the crew.

Incidentally, Mr Roys found an acquaintance, Miss Mabel Foster, who later became his wife. Though the servant of God passed on many years ago, his works do follow him.

No records are found to show just when the foundation was laid, but —continued on page seven

Mr and Mrs Lawrence D Kimball were honored Tuesday night at a surprise party in observance of their 25th wedding anniversary. The event was held at the home of Mr and Mrs Philip Chadbourne, where guests waited until 10 o'clock for the arrival of Mr and Mrs Kimball from a trip to Quebec City.

DOUGLASS - TAYLOR

West Parish Congregational Church was the scene of an attractive wedding at 2 p. m., Sept. 4, when Miss Grace Taylor, daughter of Mrs Alice Taylor, became the bride of Richard Arthur Douglass, son of Mr and Mrs Fred Douglass.

The double ring ceremony was performed by Rev Charles L Pendleton, pastor, and the wedding marches were played by Mrs Lawrence Lord at the organ.

Given in marriage by her brother, Albert Taylor, the bride wore a gown of Chantilly lace over satin in with nylon tulle skirt with lace inserts. Her short lace veil fell from a crown of seeded pearls and she carried a prayer book.

Mrs Robert Henley, Pemaquid, attended her sister as matron of honor. Bridesmaids were the Misses Thora MacDonald and Bann Clifford, Boston. They wore gowns of lavender, yellow and green, with headresses to match.

Miss Jewel Henley, niece of the bride was flower girl and Scott Henley, nephew of the bride, served as ring-bearer.

Charles Merrill attended the bridegroom as best man. Ushers were Roger Pratt, Biddeford, and Arlan Jodrey.

The mother of the bride was gown in flowered nylon and wore a corsage of red roses. The mother of the groom wore dark blue tulle and also wore a corsage of red roses.

Following the ceremony, a reception was held in Garland Chapel.

Mrs Charles Merrill circulated the guest book and Miss Kathryn Coffey, Boston, presided at the gift table. Mrs Nell Merrill served at the punch bowl and Mrs O A Pratt, Biddeford, and Mrs Rachel Glines served the cakes. The wedding cake was cut by the matron of honor.

The bride's gift to the groom was luggage and the groom's gift to the bride was a leather handbag. The bride chose necklaces as her gifts to her attendants and the groom presented the best man and ushers with billfolds.

After the reception, the couple left on a wedding trip to the Moosehead region, the bride traveling in a fall plaid dress with light accessories. They are now residing at the Trailer Park, Scarborough.

Mr and Mrs Douglass both attended Bethel schools and graduated from Gould Academy in 1931. Mrs Douglass is a graduate of the Nurses' Training School at Northwood Hospital, Northwood, Mass., and has been doing private nursing duty in Boston. Mr Douglass is employed at the State Garage in Scarborough.

SOCIAL SECURITY NOW AVAILABLE TO FARMERS

Social security is now available to Maine farmers. All farmers who clear $400 or more a year are at last coming under the system that gives monthly insurance payments to them in old age or to their dependent survivors in case of death. If their gross receipts amount to $400 or more, farmers don't need to net $400 in one year. Insured retired farmers 65 years or more old will be eligible for payments of from $30 to $165.50 a month. First, farmers should get social security cards and numbers from any social security branch office if they don't already have them. Then, they should keep records of receipts and expenses so they can make the necessary annual reports.

Mr and Mrs Robert York entertained members of the Methodist Couples' Club at their home Saturday evening. A pot luck supper and social evening were enjoyed. Those present were Rev and Mrs Robert Carter, Mr and Mrs John Greenleaf, Mr and Mrs Robert Kenston, Mr and Mrs Stanley Davis and the host and hostess.

Muskie Defeats Governor Cross; Boyker Winner

Edmund S Muskie of Waterville, native of Rumford, was elected Governor of Maine Monday by a decisive margin by nearly 22,000 votes in the state totals, winning 54 1/2% of the total count. The loser, Governor Burton M Cross, polled 113,210, while Muskie received 135,913. The first Democratic Governor-elect in 20 years, he carried Oxford County as did Louis J Brann, the last Democratic governor, in 1934.

United States Senator, Margaret Chase Smith of Skowhegan, was again victorious, defeating her Democratic opponent, Paul A Fulam of Sidney by a 143,539-101,967 score. Robert Hale, of Portland, was elected for his seventh term as Representative to Congress, having polled in the first district 47,274 votes, compared with 43,577 credited to James O Oliver, Democratic. Oliver was once a Representative to Congress as a Republican.

Leading in the State Senate contest was Henry W Boyker of Bethel, former senator who two years ago was an independent candidate for Governor.

Figures of contested County and State offices are printed in this issue of the Citizen.

Washouts on the Grand Trunk interrupted service until Tuesday afternoon, when the eastbound passenger train reached Portland via Maine Central tracks from Yarmouth Junction. In the meantime first class mail was carried by trucks.

THE WORLD'S MOST WIDELY USED DEVOTIONAL GUIDE

Thursday, September 16

Read Proverbs 2:1-5 or Matthew 13:44-46

The kingdom of heaven is like a merchant in search of fine pearls.

NEVER shall I forget a visit I paid to Kano, in northern Nigeria. It is the southern gateway to the Sahara. In the famous market place, my companion halted me before a stall and introduced me to an Arab trader. Spread out in the open air was a collection of beads and colored glass. I dismissed the entire stock as valueless.

As we turned away, my friend said, "You thought that stall had nothing but rubbish, and this morning you were right. But occasionally that stall includes among its rubbish a jewel from a Pharaoh's tomb. When that happens, if an expert is present, he can pick up a fortune for a few shillings."

So also is the kingdom of heaven. People undervalue it. As a result, they miss the best. With God's help, through Jesus Christ, anyone can be enough of an expert to discover the value of the kingdom of heaven.

Prayer
O God of all grace, forgive us, we pray Thee, for our indifference and our blindness of heart. Help us to recognize Thy glory everywhere. As we see Thee today in the lives of our fellows, enable us to worship Thee by serving them. We ask this in the name of Jesus. Amen.

WOODSTOCK

The Seventh-day Adventist Church School opened September 13 with twenty-one pupils under the instruction of Mrs. Horace Fitcher of Woodlawn, Long Island.

This year the Woodstock Church School will be operated as a one-room school due to the fact that there seems to be a gap in the ages and grades of the pupils.

There are no pupils this year requiring ninth and tenth grade instruction. Those who finished tenth grade last year have gone to South Lancaster Academy in Massachusetts and Adventist schools in other places.

Certificates and pins were awarded to thirteen members of the Red Cross Home Nursing Class recently when the closing program was presented publicly under the direction of the instructor, Mrs. Maybelle Thurlow. The exercises were held in the Seventh-day Adventist church. The group instructed by Mrs. Thurlow was a correlation of the American Red Cross and the Medical Department of the General Conference of Seventh-day Adventists.

HISTORY OF THE NEWRY COMMUNITY CHURCH

It is safe to assume that it was in the spring of 1904. Records do tell that P J Latchford was in charge of the foundation, whereas, Gardner Roberts was the boss carpenter. It was learned from the diary of Mr Willard B Wight that the Dedication Service was held on Wednesday, August 31 of that year. Cash contributions were solicited and the response was gratifying. One of the good ladies, Mrs M L Thurston, approached a prominent man in Bethel who tried to discourage her saying it was useless for the few people here to think of building a church. He told her that when she had raised a certain amount that he would match it. The story goes that in a few days he was asked to keep his promise.

The subscriptions, though seemingly small today, were generous people giving according to their means. The subscribers included many who summered at the then Poplar Hotel. The subscriptions totaled eight-hundred ninety dollars and twenty-nine cents. This with the lumber, the labor, and the untiring efforts of the Ladies Circle met the cost of the church.

Much of the labor was volunteered and was done during the spring farming and the summer haying season. But the men gave unstintingly of their time.

There were in this project, as in every undertaking, a few leaders and supporters. Among those may be mentioned: Mr and Mrs M L Thurston, Mr and Mrs H F Thurston, Mr and Mrs A O Littlehale, Mr and Mrs S A Eames, Mr and Mrs W D Kilgore, Mr and Mrs W B Wight, Mr and Mrs F P Flint, Mr and Mrs R W Kilgore. Not only to these, but to countless others who contributed in any way a debt of gratitude is due today.

Without the inestimable efforts of the Ladies Circle, it is doubtful if the project could have been completed. Suppers and fairs gradually increased the funds. For example, the sum of one hundred and five dollars was realized from the Album Quilt. The ice cream sales deserve special mention.

In those days Poplar Hotel was doing a thriving business. Some of the guests were loyal supporters to the cause. Imagine, if you can, some thirty guests trudging from the hotel up the Branch Road to Eames' Hall to patronize the ice cream sales. Usually a short program was prepared. The guests often took part in the entertainment, especially by giving musical numbers. The dramatic talent then displayed by local people might surpass that of Hollywood players today.

Only a few families had ice cream freezers, but their neighbors contributed towards the ingredients. The writer recalls seeing eggs, milk, cream, etc., being brought to her mother's kitchen. Sometimes one of the men would come to turn the crank.

Records show that a gratifying sum was realized from a box supper held at Kilgore's while another item reports the proceeds of a baseball game when the ladies furnished the refreshments.

It is reasonable to believe that outside of the lumber and labor donated, the cost of the building was approximately nine-hundred dollars. Mr M L Thurston advanced the money to pay the current bills and in 1906, he was reimbursed in full.

Some of the furnishings were gifts. Mrs Dennis Kilgore gave the pulpit, Mrs Charles Bartlett, the Bible. The chandelier and the clock were presented by Portland friends. The bell was the gift of Mr and Mrs Percy Rolfe, for many years summer guests in Newry.

Other gifts added in recent years are the communion table and cover, and two chairs presented by the Older Young People's group, the candle holders presented by the Morton family in memory of Mr Herbert H Morton, and the communion set presented in memory of Mr and Mrs M L Thurston by their children.

The building was dedicated as a Universalist church. The interest of Rev F E Barton, then pastor of the Bethel Universalist church was solicited and he thought it probable that the Universalist State Association might contribute financially to the support of the services. But this anticipation did not become a realization.

For a few years, services were held during the summer months, conducted by student ministers who were paid a small amount by the local people. But the church activities were at a low ebb. Rev W C Curtis of the Bethel Congregational church was cognizant of the existing conditions and expressed a desire to be of some assistance. He visited in the homes and held an occasional service. Through his influence, the Congregational Conference of Maine began to give us financial aid which it has continued to do ever since.

In 1913, some members of the parish felt that the name, Universalist church, did not apply, but that it was really a community church. It was then that a new organization was formed known as the Union Religious Society of Newry and since then the business of the church has been carried on under this organization.

Ministers of different denominations have served through the years, most of them students. Rev J H Little of the Bethel Universalist church conducted services. Rev Elwin Wilson, who later became a District Superintendent of the Methodist Conference now chaplain at the University of Maine, supplied the pulpit at different times. Rev S T Achenbach of the Bethel Congregational church did also.

In 1926 the Umbagog Larger Parish was formed to include the Newry, Upton, Wilson's Mills, and Magalloway parishes in Maine, and the Errol parish in New Hampshire. The Maine and New Hampshire conferences joined hands in this arrangement. Rev Alfred Bliss was Superintendent of the Maine Conference and the Rev E R Stearns of the New Hampshire conference.

This Larger Parish could not have been maintained had it not been for the generous annual contribution of William Bingham II.

Rev Hilda Ives gave much appreciated assistance in the promoting of this Larger Parish. Others who attended the organizational meeting and expressed their interest were Rev E R Stearns, Rev Stanley Manning, Rev Alfred V Bliss, Rev S T Achenbach, Rev Charles Easternhouse, Rev W I Bull, Robert Haldane, Myrtle MacKenzie, and Phillip Gordon.

Each local parish elected three council members to hold a joint meeting once a year, or oftener if necessary, with the representatives of the Maine and New Hampshire conferences. Mrs Ida Wight of Newry was the secretary for the twenty years during which the Larger Parish functioned.

Rev Robert Haldane was the first pastor and served seven years. He established the work on a firm foundation for the successors. During the summer months, additional help was given by students working especially in Vacation Bible Schools. This list includes Mrs Gladys Doughty York who served more acceptably for two summers.

In 1947, Mr Bingham deemed it necessary to discontinue his contribution without which it seemed impossible to carry on the work of the Larger Parish. It was voted to discontinue the Larger Parish except as a social organization. This reservation was made because of the fine fellowship which had been fostered by the Mother and Daughter and the Father and Son banquets. These organizations were formed during the pastorate of Rev John C Manton. In May of this year, 1954, the Mother and Daughter Banquet was held at Newry with an attendance of ninety-eight representing the different parishes.

Since the abolishment of the Larger Parish, the Errol and Magalloway area has been served by the Colebrook, New Hampshire minister, while the Newry, Sunday River and Upton parishes have a student minister through the summer months.

The services of Rev Orville O

Lozier, assistant minister of the Congregational Christian Conference of Maine, in securing the ministers for this church has been greatly appreciated in recent years.

We have been fortunate in having had a few services conducted by Rev Charles Pendleton of Bethel and Dr Wilbur I Bull recently retired from the Oxford County United Parish.

One privilege which Upton, Sunday River and Newry have enjoyed has been the services of Rev Eunice Shaw who has spent a few weeks in our parish at different times. Her service was made possible through the kindness of Dr Cornelius Clark, minister of the Maine Congregational Christian Conference.

The young people's work in any church deserves consecrated efforts. Since no church services are held regularly except during the summer, a church school is held on a week day at the close of the afternoon session of the public school. A Vacation Bible School has been held for several years. During the summer, the young people of Newry, Upton and Sunday River meet in one group for worship, programs and recreation.

Now let us turn back fifty years to the event which we are observing today (Aug. 29). The church was filled to overflowing, people sat in their carriages or stood near the windows to hear the service. Rev F E Barton preached the sermon with other ministers sharing in the service. The music was under the direction of the well-known singing school master Prof Scott Wight.

Tables had been placed in the grove back of the church for a lunch where old friends met and new ones made in Christian fellowship. A Dedication cake was served. This was made by Mrs Mary Paine, great-grandmother of Mrs Selma Chapman, one of our loyal workers today. This emphasizes the fact that one generation passes on leaving the work of the church to be carried on by those who follow.

Within this church, the community has gathered for funerals, for weddings, and for many Baptisms. In such services the bonds of unity and of Christian fellowship have strengthened our town.

May the history of the next fifty years show that the church has continued to serve in added measure the purpose for which

I wish to express my appreciation to the voters of Oxford County for the very fine vote they gave me in Monday's election.

JAMES LASSITER
Sheriff of Oxford County

Better Television!

Would you like to be sure you are getting good TV?
Are you under the impression that all the faults are with the stations?
Are you sure the actors on the screen are not too fat, thin or tall?
Do you get ghosts, shadows or vertical lines shaded black?
Do you get a white border around edges of objects?
Does a doorway or baseball bat looked curved or crooked?
Is the picture too large or too small?
Do you have the right amount of black and white in the picture?
Are the small details sharp and clear or is everything a little blurry?
Can you receive all the stations you should?
Is your antenna installed properly? Is it protected from lightning and static charges?

Do you receive too much automobile ignition interference or any other kind?
If you want the correct answer to these and many more questions, simply mail a card to STONEHAM HANDCRAFTERS stating that you would like to have you TV set and antenna checked. For a limited time this will cost you five dollars. You will receive for your five dollars the following:

A Television Engineer with twenty-seven years television experience will call at your home with a properly equipped test truck. He will test your TV set with expensive and accurate instruments. He will test for Sensitivity — Horizontal and Vertical alignment — Focus — Size of screen — Horizontal and Vertical Hold — Video amp. ringing — I. F. amp. adjustment, brightness, etc.

The engineer will while testing make any adjustments necessary to correct faults provided the chassis does not have to be removed from the cabinet. He will measure the signal strength from the antenna. Test its direction. Examine it for errors of installation, effects of weather, and if it has proper lightning protection, etc.

He will then report to you his findings and recommend changes if necessary to reproduce a perfect picture.

STONEHAM HANDCRAFTERS can make this survey accurately and without guessing. They not only have the experience and technical knowledge but better test instruments than most TV service organizations.
